811 — INFO-SANTÉ: HOW CALLS ARE HANDLED

This service is available 24 hrs/365 days a year and gives you access to nurses and social workers.

- For service in English, press 9
- For Health questions, press 1
- For Social Services, press 2

Info-Social 811 service professionals give advice and can answer questions about psychosocial issues. If necessary, they can also refer you to an appropriate resource in the health and social services network or to a community resource.

Here are some examples of situations when you can call Info-Social 811:

- You are in a situation that is making you feel anxious.
- You are worried about a family member or friend.
- You are experiencing family or relationship problems.
- You are going through a bereavement.
- You have questions about other worrisome situations or behaviours.

A nurse will collect your personal information (name, date of birth, postal code, telephone number), assess and respond to your needs, and refer you to an appropriate resource, as necessary.

211 — DIRECTORY OF LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS AND PUBLIC SERVICES

211 is an easy number to remember (2-1-1). This service offers information and referral services available 7 days a week from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., 365 days a year, and will eventually be open 24 hours a day. Call or visit their website for information and referrals on community, public and parapublic services in the Greater Montreal area, including parts of the South Shore.

CHAPTER 2—SUPPORT AND SERVICES

1 – DAILY LIVING SUPPORT

A — FOOD SUPPORT AND ASSISTANCE

There is a central number that can direct people in need to any food bank on the South Shore
(450) 641-2885.

The situation is ever evolving, and we will do our best to keep you informed. It's recommended to call ahead since many South Shore Community services and programs have reduce their hours or closed.

Helpful Hints:

- Plan ahead. Most organizations are only open during weekdays and closed on the weekends.
- Be prepared to show documentation. Proof of income may be required (pay stub/income tax return).
- You should always call ahead as some of the organizations are by appointment only. No delivery or walk-in traffic.
- Some organizations may have a fee. Membership may be required.

Below is a list of some of the organizations on the South Shore:

H.O.P.E. (Helping Other People Effectively)

H.O.P.E. is a team of volunteers that were brought together back in 1981. Their mission is to help other people effectively by assisting individuals and families in need, with gifts of food and basic financial guidance. They are families, single-parent families and individuals, most of whom are in financial distress to the point of hunger.

Due to the generosity of many different groups and organizations, they can continue their work year-round, right here within our very own neighbourhoods of Greenfield Park, Ville LeMoyne, St-Hubert and Brossard.

D — DAY CENTRE/RESPIRE

Adult day care centres enable seniors to socialize and enjoy planned activities in a group setting, while still receiving needed health services. At the same time, they offer family caregivers respite from caregiving duties while knowing that their loved one is in a safe place.

Seniors Respite Montérégie

Offers in-home and day centre services designed to promote well-being for seniors with dementia/Alzheimer who can no longer manage independently or who are isolated or lonely. They also provide caregivers with a much-needed break and respite in order to help them attend to their own personal needs or to simply help them to relax while their loved one is in their care.

Services: This service provides respite for caregivers Monday to Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Clients that attend the Day Centre participate in a number of specialized activities designed to essentially stimulate and encourage their physical, cognitive, and social skills.

Activities available: Arts and crafts, musical entertainment and sing-alongs, seated stretching and gentle exercise, recreational therapy, cooking class, holiday and birthday celebrations, special events, games for fun, leisure, mental stimulation and all of the classics.

CLSC Samuel de Champlain

Please contact your local CLSC to be assessed by a healthcare professional.

The day centre provides group prevention and therapy activities for seniors and adults with a loss of autonomy. The activities are designed to help users maintain their physical, cognitive and social skills, stay healthy, and remain autonomous enough to stay at home. The day centre also helps combat loneliness and isolation and provides respite to caregivers.

People interested in attending a day centre must live at home, show signs of a loss of autonomy, and be willing to participate in group activities. The activities are chosen based on participants' needs and the services available.

The groups are made up of 10-30 people and take part in various activities: Exercise classes, physical games, information, prevention, craft workshops and brain games. Special group exercise classes are available for people with a physical disability (Parkinson's, arthritis, etc.). Respite groups are also offered for caregivers.

CLSC Samuel de Champlain

For people with a loss of autonomy, a chronic disease, or a serious cognitive problem, it sometimes becomes impossible to live at home. When this happens, they can apply for a public housing spot adapted to their needs and living situation. Public housing is available at the long-term care centres (CHSLDs) of the CISSS, and at partner facilities with which the CISSS has signed an agreement (PPP, purchase of spots, IR-FTR).

To apply for public housing:

- The user, a parent or a loved one must contact a social worker at one of our CLSCs.
- The social worker will assess the person's needs, take the necessary steps, and support the person and their family throughout the housing application process. The social worker will help you find the right resource.
